DESCENDANTS OF PETER MCCUNE

Don Norman

1.PETER MCCUNE

Peter McCune was born in November 1748 in Ireland and died January 15, 1832, in what is now Washington District, Calhoun County, WV and is buried outside the fence at the Knotts cemetery. We do not know when or how he came to America.

Peter enlisted in the Continental Army in 1777 under Captain John Lewis and Colonel Henias Morgan of the 2nd VA Regiment. (Service No.W 7412). In 1778, he reenlisted at Petersburg, VA, under Captain Campbell and Colonel Lewis Gibson of the 9th VA Regiment. In total, he served three years against the Indians and the British and was discharged at Wheeling, VA (WV) in 1781.

In late 1780, the Indians were on the warpath near the present site of Clarksburg, WV. The Adam O'Brien family had taken refuge at Fort Richards, about ten miles upstream from Clarksburg on the West Fork of the Monongalia River. Christina O'Brien met Peter McCune, who was a guard at the Fort, and they were married by a Baptist minister named Edwards January 13, 1781. Christina was 14 years of age and many years later, Elijah Runion was to give oath that he had witnessed the marriage of Peter McCune and that he had advised Christina to stuff handkerchiefs in her bosom to appear more mature. Christina died in Calhoun County WV in March 1879.

In 1778, Peter received 400 acres of land on Rooting Creek, Monongalia County VA (WV) in compensation for his military service. In 1810, Peter built the first cabin in Dekalb District, Gilmer County VA (WV) at the mouth of Leading Creek. By 1815, he had moved to the West Fork of the Little Kanawha River.

Peter McCune appeared in court in Lewis County, VA (WV) September 13, 1820 to give oath of his service in the Revolution and to give a schedule of his holdings. (Applicants for a Revolutionary War pension were required to list their property.) The court certified that Peter had property worth $67. He was awarded a pension of $8 per month, to begin August 3, 1818. After Peter's death on January 15, 1832, Christina applied for his pension. Elijah Runion and Adam Flesher appeared to testify that they had been present at the wedding of Peter and Christina. Christina further stated that Peter had served six months in the American Army during the War of 1812. She also stated that she and Peter were the parents of 10 children, six boys and four girls.

Known children of Peter and Christina (O'Brien) McCune.

Hardesty's History of Calhoun County WV says:

"The first wedding was a double one, two taking place at the same time and place, the high contracting parties being Thomas Barnhouse and Mary Bush and Thomas Cottrell and Mary Parsons. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. William Hacker."

Deweese states, "This Mary McCune was the mother of Sam McCune, called Sam the Varmet, who was shot and killed in his yard by his uncle Timothy McCune... ...at the commencement of the late Civil War."

Mary died before 1834 and Thomas married Drusilla Burnside.

8.DANIEL MCCUNE 1.PETER MCCUNE

Daniel McCune, a son of Peter and Christina O'Brien McCune, was born about 1798 and died in 1849 or 1850. He married Rebecca Nichols. Rebecca, a daughter of Levan and Margaret (Mace) Nichols, was born in VA about 1805. According to D.S. Deweese's "Recollections and Experiences of a Lifetime", Daniel was a member of an informal group who called themselves "The Hellfired Band". This group roved from place to place and wanted to preserve the West Fork of the Little Kanawha River as a sportsman's paradise. Since Jonathan Nichols was a supervisor charged with building a road through the West Fork area, his objectives ran counter to the purposes of the Band. Accordingly, they killed Jonathan April 8, 1843.

A citizen's posse arrested Jackson Cottrell, Daniel McCune, Joseph Parsons and Alexander Turner and took them to Charleston, where they were convicted and sentenced to eighteen years in prison in Richmond, VA. Jackson was pardoned after five years, but the others died in prison. Daniel died about 1849 or 1850. After Daniel's death, Rebecca married Jacob McElwain.

Known children of Daniel and Rebecca (Nichols) McCune.

10.CHRISTINA MCCUNE 1.PETER MCCUNE

Christina McCune, a daughter of Peter and Christina (O'Brien) McCune, was born about 1804, probably in Harrison County VA (WV) and moved with her family to what is now Calhoun County WV. She married Barnabas Cook about 1820.

Barnabas, a son of Saul and Elizabeth (Snow) Cook, was born April 15, 1784, in at Litchfield, Kinnebec Maine and died in 1862 at Amma, Roane County, WV. His monument at Pleasant Hill Cemetery in Roane County WV lists him as a veteran of the War of 1812.

Barnabas came from Ohio to what is now Calhoun County as a Disciples of Christ missionary. He was a pioneer of Kanawha county, where he served as justice of the peace and one term as High Sheriff. He also managed to spend much time preaching the Christian gospel over a period of twenty-five years. The marriage records of Kanawha are strewn with his name and reports of marriages that he performed.

According to Hardesty's History of Calhoun County, Barnabas was one of the very early settlers on the West Fork of the Little Kanawha River in what is now Calhoun County, WV. Daniel DeWeese recorded the following in his (1905) book, "Recollections and Experiences of a Lifetime":

"Squire Cook, in company with a comrade, Elijah McCumber, came as missionaries to the then wilderness of the West Fork, and Cook was the first minister of the gospel to preach a sermon within the present limits of Washington district, Calhoun County. Squire Barnibus Cook married Christena McCune, a daughter of Peter McCune, before referred to, while I was at Squire Cook's who then lived just above the road opposite where what is now known as the Dock Parsons place, just South of the Lee district line. In the fall of 1841, I was at Squire Cook's when one of the settlers in the Squire's bailiwick, Daniel Coger, who had sold his wife sometime previous to Timothy McCune for an averagible deer's skin, dressed to be as large as a doe's hide, in delinquency of which payment, Coger sought a redress of grievance in Squire Cook's court, it being the first law suit that I ever attended, both litigants and witnesses being present and the cause coming on for hearing, the court heard all that was adduced by plaintiffs and defendants and the material facts being overwhelmingly in favor of the plaintiff, judgement was accordingly awarded for the deer hide and the costs upon which Wm. Truman, constable, was armed with an execution and commanded by the court to proceed accordingly."

Barnabas died in 1863 and Christina in 1879.
